

Individual Mentoring Professional Speakers

Can you afford to be without a mentor?

In the field of professional speakers, coaching isn't common. Even more shocking: the speaker agencies hardly check the level of the professional speakers when they are contracted. Worse, they don't check if the level from the past fits the current level of expectations. The result is that many speakers do 'their thing'. Whenever you book them, they do a similar speech or presentation.

Why? It's an easy way of making good money.

The top level, the field of public speaking, is one of the best paid professions all over the world.

How about you, professional speaker yourself... Do you have a mentor helping you to cover your blind spots, who works with you to stay in shape, like all pros in sport do?

We understand that you don't want 'just a coach'; you need someone who understands the field of public speaking well and knows your challenges. At Presentation-Master we understand what is affecting you. The question is: Do you dare to improve; do you dare to leave your comfort zone?

Are you willing to improve and go to the next level of speakers? Learn how to be authentic, clear and effective, and become the ACE in field of public speaking?

What does the individual mentoring contain

Together we start a journey. On the way we discover how to keep up the energy within you and how to keep the interaction with your audience on an attractive level, without effort. This goes way beyond what most speakers do. You will become the master of invisible controlling interactions.

We take a closer look at your drives and how that is affecting your speaking. We will also find out how you sound, how you look and how you come across. A real eye-opener to many participants!

We cover the latest effective storytelling techniques to increase your impact. We teach you how to work with power spots on stage so you can create the magic memory for your audience.

Last but not least, we discover your true voice, we show you on the spot how you can transform from just looking good, to create real impact in your speaking and presenting.

All practises will be recorded for your own benefit.

Together we pick an upcoming gig to work on. Your mentor will be with you at the live event and record you.

During our last session we will take a critical look at your presentation, so you know exactly what to keep in it and what to let go.
