

TEDx Coaching

Why TEDx Coaching

We get many requests from speakers who want to be on the famous red dot of a TEDx event. Since 2012, Presentation-Master coaches have coached more than a hundred TEDx speakers worldwide.

Presentation-Master has developed a special program for speakers to get them to apply, ready to speak and fully prepared.

What does the program contain?

During our one-to-one coaching, you will learn about:

- your authentic and impactful topic.
- how to share your story at a TED-worthy level.
- how to fill in your application-form and how to stand out in the crowd of wannabees.
- how to deliver an outstanding TEDx talk without notes, from the heart and on time.

How does TEDx-Coaching work?

1. During the first session of an hour we help you with your basic TEDx talk, your story and the frame. After this, you start to write your talk. You send your draft to us and we go over it, giving you more suggestions if needed.
2. In session two we refine your talk, and work towards a time frame of 10-15 minutes. We make it ready to test it on video.
3. You send us a video of your talk so far, and we prepare you to record your video for application and help you to fill out an application form so you get ready for the real stage. Get yourself in the picture and on that red dot as soon as you can.

Note it is all in your hands; it depends on how motivated you are to do this!

4. After your spot is confirmed, we will get you ready to perform on a top level during weekly coaching sessions, in six weeks you are ready to conquer the stage!

Session 5, 6, 7 will be about refining and polishing your delivery. You record yourself; we give you minute to minute feedback.

Note: These sessions require at least 30 minutes per DAY for you to practise, count this in for the desired results.

We don't work with coachees who don't create time to practise.

8. In the last session we go over your given talks and give feedback on your final video, so from here you can improve even more!

If your idea is worth spreading and you are motivated to put time and effort in; we would love to help you create your authentic TEDxTalk!
